

Top Rated Supplier Helps Distributors with

Outdoor Events

Are you pigeon-holed?

When your clients and prospects think of you, do they often classify you as...

"That promotions source?"

"My shirt vendor?"

"My trade show giveaway person?"

Just as we thought. They look at you for primarily INDOOR promotions. But what happens when what they need takes them OUTSIDE? Are you getting that business?

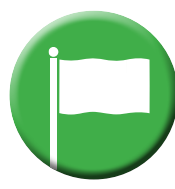

Helping you capture outdoor business when the market's outside!

When spring turns to summer, and outdoor living is a mantra for most of us, events happen outside. People emerge. Travel. Explore. Shop. Party. Cheer. Sightsee. Do all the things they love.

So when the people move OUTSIDE, so do our possibilities for outdoor promotions.

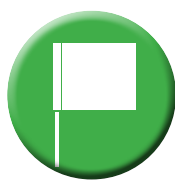

Crowds need DIRECTION. Wrangling. Focus. Guidance. Purpose. Motivation. Information. Gathering points. Welcomes. Cautions. And it all starts with signage. But are you thought of for that signage? We're sure not often enough.

When the temp gets warm, let's strike when it's hot

So one supplier – the #1 rated Flag, Banner & Display supplier in the promotional products industry – decided to create not just a day – but an entire MONTH – to focus buyers on how to get more from outdoor promotions.

Introducing Outdoor Marketing Month, the entire month of June. With free tools to help you market this outdoor niche to help you win more business.

What does it feature for FREE?

WEBSITE. There's a non-branded website about the entire month, showing oodles of outdoor options.

FLYERS. Flyers done for you, ready for you to own.

All buyer-friendly. So it's your month, with your tools to promote your way.

What kinds of outdoor marketing does it show?

You name it. This supplier's got it in soft signage. From every type of flag and banner. To pennants, tents, displays, table stands and more. And even creative ways to turn outdoor things into advertising. By covering them.

4 categories of transformable products:

- Door runners – Turn every door into a billboard.
- Car Covers – Creative ways to turn every vehicle into a mobile promotion.
- People Covers – Unique ways to outfit the crowd with a brand or message.
- Everything Covers – Almost every THING can be transformed into advertising. And if not, we can custom make it with soft stretchable fabrics printed in full color. The sky is the limit!

Strut your outdoor before others beat you to it.

Get the credit you deserve. Promote the season. State your case. Claim your turf. Make the extra sales. Cash in on the opportunity. It takes just a few minutes to add it to your email signature, to send out an email to clients and prospects, do a few social media posts. They've done most of the work for you, the O Pro. (Outdoor Marketing Pro.)
